

HIRAM W. JOHNSON HOUSE

122 Maryland Avenue, NE

From 1929 to 1947 this was the residence of Senator Hiram W. Johnson, former governor of California and a leading voice of the Progressive movement. Johnson was instrumental in the formation of the Progressive Party in 1912 and was the party's vice presidential candidate when former President Theodore Roosevelt ran unsuccessfully on its ticket for president. The house was subsequently adapted to office uses.
